Transportation Research Record

1995 "For more than 50 years, the Transportation Research Record has been internationally recognized as one of the preeminent peer-reviewed journals for transportation research papers from authors in the United States and from around the world. One of the most cited transportation journals, the TRR offers unparalleled depth and breadth in the coverage of transportation topics from both academic and practitioner perspectives. All modes of passenger and freight transportation are addressed in papers covering a wide array of disciplines, including policy, planning, administration, economics and financing, operations, construction, design, maintenance, safety, and more."--Publisher's website

Nonmotorized Transportation Research, Issues, and Use

1995 Nonmotorized transportation continues to be a major topic for the international transportation community. Just the enormous volume of nonmotorized transportation suggests that these modes must not be ignored in transportation planning, safety, and operations.
