

Yours Accidentally

Always use yours and never your's. Although they look almost exactly alike, the version with the apostrophe is incorrect and will make your writing look unprofessional. Confused about when to use "yours" vs. "your's"? Learn the simple rule to avoid this common grammar mistake and ensure your writing is always correct. "Yours" is the only correct possessive form of "you" when we write it after the object in a sentence. This is one of the most common ways to write a sentence with "you" in the possessive. Yours works by ... Mar 4, 2026 · Here's a simple explanation: 'Yours' is the correct form to show something belongs to you. For example, "This book is yours." It doesn't need an apostrophe because it's already possessive. ... Oct 12, 2022 · What's the Difference Between Yours vs Your's? Yours is a second person possessive pronoun. It indicates that something is owned by the person you're addressing, both for second ... Jun 13, 2025 · "Yours" is the second-person possessive pronoun. "Your's," with an apostrophe, is a misspelling of "yours" and is always incorrect. Given that this convention is so frequent in our language, it would be normal to assume that a word such as yours would also need an apostrophe. However, because its communication of possession is ... "Your's" is an incorrect spelling, while "Yours" is the correct possessive pronoun. Yours indicates possession or ownership. The correct form is "yours," without an apostrophe. In English, an apostrophe typically indicates a contraction or possession, but with possessive pronouns like “yours,” “hers,” “ours,” and “theirs,” no ... When you are indicating possession, yours is the correct choice—not your’s. You do not need an apostrophe to indicate possession because yours itself is a possessive pronoun.
