There are two regional Horizons programs in Georgia, one serving Atlanta, and the other serving Savannah. In each of these communities, there are multiple Horizons locations, including ... Horizons - Holy Innocents' Episcopal School is a coeducational, PK3-12 private school located in Atlanta, Georgia. In the project-based Horizons approach, our scholars learn by doing. They become inspired as they explore reading, math, science, music, theater, art, swimming, and other activities that cultivate ... Horizons Atlanta at the University of Georgia (Horizons at UGA) is a six-week summer learning experience that supports students from underserved communities throughout their K-12 academic ... Hosted by five independent schools and five colleges and universities, Horizons Atlanta supports children in three school districts—Fulton County, City of Atlanta, and Paulding County. Our tuition-free summer learning and enrichment programs address the opportunity gap that exists between students from communities with limited access to resources and their more fortunate peers. The mission of Horizons at Georgia Tech is to build long-term partnerships with scholars, families, communities, and schools to create experiences outside of school that inspire the joy of learning. Active afternoons, flexible camps, movement, creativity, outdoor play, and one big play date for kids around Atlanta's Inman Park. In small classes led by professional teachers, our scholars dive into rich curricula with a focus on literacy and STEAM. Learn more about the impact this makes on our scholars' academic success. LEARN ... Students have access to Georgia Tech staff, faculty and Georgia Tech students through lab visits and guest speakers. Robust school year programming includes an after school program with homework ...
