When you use active verbs in your written work, rather than passive ones, it sounds clearer and more direct. Active sentences, such as 'The dog chased the cat ', are more concise than passive sentences ... If you say that a person or animal is active in a particular place or at a particular time, you mean that they are performing their usual activities or performing a particular activity. ACTIVE is the leader in online event registrations from 5k running races and marathons to softball leagues and local events. ACTIVE also makes it easy to learn and prepare for all the things you love ... ACTIVE is the leader in online event registrations from 5k running races and marathons to softball leagues and local events. ACTIVE also makes it easy to learn and prepare for all the things you love ... The meaning of ACTIVE is characterized by action rather than by contemplation or speculation. How to use active in a sentence. In grammar, the active or the active voice means the forms of a verb which are used when the subject refers to a person or thing that does something. For example, in 'I saw her yesterday,' the verb is in ... Something that is active is characterized by movement and action. That action might be a random or temporary movement, such as someone who is active and exercises only now and then, or ... What is a basic definition of active? Active is an adjective that describes something as involving a lot of energetic work or as engaging in action, operation, or motion. Active is the most general, connoting physical or mental exertion in a variety of contexts: an active toddler; an active imagination; remained active in later years by walking and swimming. We stay/keep active during the cold winter months by skiing and ice skating. Despite her age, she has been able to maintain her active [= busy] lifestyle. Cats are most active [= energetic, lively] at night.
