the Wind. Betrayed by the men who controlled her future, she fought for her right to believe in a loving God. Meet Tamar, one of the five women in the lineage of Christ. She risked her life and her reputation to be the woman she was called to be. Her story serves as an example of how God uses our circumstances and our steps toward Him, however faltering, to fulfill His plan. Unveiled is book one in the popular Lineage of Grace series about five unlikely women who changed eternity. Inspirational biblical fiction that will point you back to Scripture Brings to life the Old Testament story of a courageous young woman in the household of Judah Weaves together themes of seeking justice and clinging to hope "Francine Rivers utilizes her expertise as master storyteller to unveil Tamar's saga, a tale of deception, betrayal, and ultimately hope." — Romantic Times This novella includes an in-depth Bible study perfect for personal reflection or group discussion.

Her Mother's Hope Francine

Rivers 2020-04-07 In this first of an epic family saga by Francine Rivers, mother and daughter relationships are challenged, setting their family on a course full of heartache.

Her Daughter's Dream

Francine Rivers 2010-10-01 The dramatic conclusion to the inspirational family saga that has captivated millions of readers around the world! A New York Times, USA Today, and Publisher's Weekly bestseller from the author of Redeeming Love. In the dramatic conclusion to the Marta's Legacy series, the beloved author of The Lady's Mine and The Masterpiece delivers a rich and deeply moving story about the silent sorrows that can tear a family apart and the grace and forgiveness that can heal even the deepest wounds. Marta's granddaughter, Carolyn, comes of age during the turbulent sixties, struggling to navigate a tense family life. Though college offers a taste of freedom, tragedy shatters her confidence and she disappears into the heady counterculture of San Francisco. When she reemerges, more lost than ever, she reluctantly turns to her family to help her rebuild a life for herself and her own daughter, May Flower Dawn. But familiar tensions emerge when Dawn develops a closer bond with her grandmother than her own mother. As she seeks to avoid the mistakes of those who went before her, Dawn determines to become a bridge between the women in her family. Her Daughter's Dream is the emotional final chapter of an unforgettable duology about the sacrifices mothers make for their daughters and the very nature of unconditional love. Perfect for fans of Christian historical fiction that doesn't shy away from the complexity and nuance of life Gripping and emotional with themes of faith, forgiveness, and overcoming generational misunderstandings Book 2 in the Marta's Legacy series "Rivers has written another page-turner. . . . This heartfelt and sweeping saga is as ambitious as its central matriarch." — Publishers Weekly "Engrossing and stunning. . . . The prose is elegant and life changing. . . . This sweeping family saga will touch both the heart and soul." — Romantic Times

The Warrior Francine Rivers 2005-03-01 Book 2 in the 5-book biblical historical fiction series by the New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love and A Voice in the Wind. A man of fire, whose words stirred men's hearts. A man of action, whose courage saved men's lives. A man of faith, whose passion drove him to God. Joshua succeeded Moses as the nation's leader. But it was Caleb's zeal that pushed the people to put their faith into action. Be challenged by this faithful man whose story we must never forget. The Warrior is the story of Caleb and book two in the popular Sons of Encouragement series about five men who quietly changed eternity. to life Features themes of courage, obedience, and trusting God "With the smooth, compelling hand of a master storyteller, Rivers retells the biblical account of Caleb, one of God's true faithful. This novella will leave readers energized and inspired." — Romantic Times "A fan favorite, Rivers's biblical fiction is quick and action-packed with appeal for both male and female readers." — Library Journal "Rivers convincingly envisions the emotions and intrigue that surely permeated the biblical events." — Publishers Weekly This novella includes an in-depth Bible study perfect for personal reflection or group discussion.

A Lineage of Grace Francine Rivers 2012-11-21 The complete biblical historical fiction compilation by the New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love and A Voice in the Wind. The Bible is filled with inspiring stories of unlikely candidates God chose to change eternity. This bestselling compilation in one volume contains five novellas about such people—women in the family tree of Jesus Christ. Tamar. Rahab. Ruth. Bathsheba. Mary. Each was faced with extraordinary—even scandalous—challenges. But they had courage. They lived daring lives. Sometimes they made mistakes—big mistakes. And yet God, in His infinite mercy and grace, used them to bring forth the Christ, the Savior of the world. Their stories still hold great meaning and inspiration for us today. Tamar risked her life and reputation to be the woman she was called to be. See how the Lord uses our circumstances and our steps toward Him, however faltering, to fulfill His plan. Rahab was exploited by men who saw only her beauty, yet she held fast to her faith in God and was rewarded. Discover how God seeks and finds those whose hearts are tender toward Him, no matter how far away they are. Ruth's loyalty, especially toward her mother-in-law Naomi, helped her persevere in the face of tragedy, and God gave her a second chance at love. Be encouraged that God will provide even when all hope seems lost. Bathsheba's scandalous affair with David did not end in one night. Learn that God is willing to restore and redeem those lost in the depths of despair who call out to Him. Mary is one of the most revered women in history. But first, she was an ordinary woman striving to please God in the same way women still do today. When God spoke, Mary responded in obedience which changed the world forever. Each novella includes an in-depth Bible study perfect for personal reflection or group discussion. Watch these five women in the Bible come to life and learn from their examples of hope, faith, love, and obedience.

The Last Sin Eater Francine Rivers 2013-05-31 The New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love and A Voice in the Wind pens a captivating tale of suffering, seeking, and redemption set in Appalachia in the 1850s. In the misty peaks and valleys of Appalachia roams the sin eater—a myth as much as a man, burdened with absolving the sins of villagers passing from this life to the next. But when a young girl uncovers the dark secret behind the tradition, she vows to show her village the truth. All that matters for young Cadi Forbes is finding the one man who can set her free from the sin that plagues her, the sin that has stolen her mother's love from her and made Cadi wish she could flee life and its terrible injustice. But Cadi doesn't know that the sin eater is seeking as well. Before their journeys are over, Cadi and the sin eater must face themselves, each other, and the One who will demand everything from them in exchange for the answers they seek. A Christian historical fiction novel of guilt, grace, and healing An allegory that combines biblical themes and 19th century rural America Includes discussion questions for book clubs "This unforgettable novel is rich in style, lore, and action, revealing a profound truth in a way only Francine Rivers can do. Transcending age, gender, and reading genres, this gripping story is a must-read for men, women, and young people alike." — Romantic Times "Rivers delivers both a powerful message about Christian beliefs and the need for forgiveness of sins and an evocative portrayal of life in the 1850s. Highly recommended." — Library Journal Also available in The Francine Rivers Historical Collection (e-book only).

Leota's Garden Francine Rivers 2013-03-01 "An emotionally compelling story" (Library Journal) about the devastation secrets can unleash on a family and the power of grace to bring second chances. Leota's garden was once a place of beauty, where flowers bloomed and hope thrived. It was her refuge from the deep wounds inflicted by a devastating war, her sanctuary where she knelt before a loving God and prayed for the children who couldn't understand her silent sacrifices. Now a widow, eighty-four-year-old Leota Reinhardt is alone, her beloved garden in ruins. All her efforts to reconcile with her adult children have been fruitless, and she voices her despair to a loving Father, her only friend. Then God brings a wind of change through unlikely means: one, a college student with an agenda all his own who thinks he has all the answers; the other, a granddaughter Leota never hoped to know. But can the devastation wrought by keeping painful family secrets be repaired before she runs out of time? A Christian contemporary novel from the New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love and The Masterpiece Weaves together themes of faith, forgiveness, and redemption Includes discussion questions for book clubs "Rivers is a master gardener . . . using poignant humor and bittersweet revelation to open hearts to reconciliation." — Romantic Times Also available in The Francine Rivers Contemporary Collection (e-book only).

The Masterpiece comes the powerful story of two women, centuries apart, who are joined through a tattered journal as they contend with God, husbands, and even themselves. Sierra Madrid's life has just been turned upside down when she discovers the handcrafted quilt and journal of her ancestor Mary Kathryn McMurray, a young woman who was uprooted from her home only to endure harsh frontier conditions on the Oregon Trail. Though the women are separated by time and circumstance, Sierra discovers that many of the issues they face are remarkably similar . . . and uncovering Mary Kathryn's story may help her write the next chapter of hers. "Rivers tells a powerful story of marital love tested in a crucible. Your hankie will not be dry, nor your heart unchallenged, as the characters learn the lessons of surrender to God's sovereignty and unconditional love." — Romantic Times Also available in The Francine Rivers Historical Collection (e-book

And the Shofar Blew

Francine Rivers 2013-05-31 A relevant and timely novel by the New York Times bestselling author of Redeeming Love and The Masterpiece. He seemed like the perfect pastor to lead Centerville Christian Church. She was the perfect pastor's wife. When Paul Hudson accepted the call to pastor the struggling church, he had no idea what to expect. But it didn't take long for Paul to turn Centerville Christian Church around. Attendance was up-way up. Everything was going so well. If only his wife could see it that way. Still, he tried not to let her quiet presence disturb him. She knew something wasn't right, and it hadn't been for a long time. . . . Eunice closed the bedroom door quietly and knelt beside her bed. "I'm drowning, God. I've never felt so alone. Who can I turn to but you, Lord? Where else does a pastor's wife go for help when her marriage is failing and her life is out of control? Who can I trust with my anguish, Lord? Who but you?" Grasping her pillow, she pressed it tightly to her mouth so that her sobs would not be heard. This thought-provoking contemporary Christian novel: Explores themes of faith, church leadership, and hearing God's voice Includes discussion questions for book clubs "This book is a powerful and almost-prophetic statement of the Pastor Ezekiel Freeman, Abra will always be the little girl who stole his heart the night he found her, a wailing newborn abandoned under a bridge on the outskirts of Haven. Zeke and his son, Joshua—Abra's closest friend—watch her grow into an exotic beauty. But Zeke knows the circumstances surrounding her birth have etched scars deep in her heart, scars that leave her vulnerable to a fast-talking charmer who lures her to Tinseltown. Hollywood feels like a million miles from Haven, and naive Abra quickly learns what's expected of an ambitious girl with stars in her eyes. But fame comes at a devastating price. She has burned every bridge to get exactly what she thought she wanted. Now all she wants is a way back home. This riveting and emotional tale is perfect for fans of: Historical fiction and Christian romance Glamorous, vintage Hollywood settings Faith-filled stories about broken characters on the road to redemption "One of the edgiest Christian romances I have had the pleasure of reading in a long while.

Francine Rivers has woven a deeply moving story with an adept hand that knows just how to layer humanity, in all its beautiful and ugly truth, into almost every individual who steps onto the page." — USA Today 's Happy Ever After Blog "This is another compelling and moving story by one of the genre's most honored and talented writers." — Library Journal , starred review "Rivers returns with a page-turning recasting of the story of the prodigal son, here a prodigal daughter. . . . This story arc will be particularly resonant for Christian readers, but Rivers has the writing ability to reel in others who enjoy a well-told tale of redemption." — Publishers Weekly
