India Higher Education Report 2021 N.V. Varghese 2022-07-12 This volume provides an in-depth analysis of the critical dimensions of higher education in India. It focuses on the growth and expansion of private higher education and public policy. The volume discusses issues related to the growth of for-profit and not-for-profit private higher education institutions and their implications at the policy level. It outlines the role of such institutions towards the internationalization and global ranking of the Indian higher education system. The book discusses the trends in internationalisation adopted by private higher education institutions and explains the resulting impact on aspects such as the diversity of programs, skill formation, employability, pedagogic practices, standards, curriculum development, and research and development, as well as the wider externalities in terms of promoting India's soft power and international relations with other countries. While outlining the challenges of Open Distance Learning (ODL) and online education in India, the book also discusses the use of ICT, OER, and MOOCs among others to address the challenges of the ODL system. This volume will be of interest to teachers, students, and researchers of education, public policy, political science, international relations, law, sociology, economics, and political economy. It will also be useful for academicians, policymakers, and anyone interested in the internationalization of Indian Higher Education.

Business Communication Pooja Khanna As we usher in the New Education Policy (NEP) 2020, the significance of soft skills, specifically skills in communication, is greatly enhanced. One of the core skills sought by business houses is the ability to conduct and communicate with others effectively. Amongst the top five criteria for selecting employees, four communication skills – speaking, writing, listening and interpersonal communication – are rated by recruiters as the most important. Effective communication brings people together. For a business to be successful and relationships to remain healthy, communication plays a vital role. This book is especially written to meet this purpose. It is in exact conformity with the syllabus of Business Communication paper of B.Com, Semester I of all Uttar Pradesh universities and colleges, as per National Education Policy (NEP) 2020
