Race is a socially defined concept sometimes used to designate a portion, or subdivision, of the human population with common physical characteristics, ancestry, or language. Let's start first with race, which refers to a category of people who share certain inherited physical characteristics, such as skin color, facial features, and stature. Note: U.S. residents are to be reported in the appropriate racial/ethnic categories along with United States citizens. Race/ethnicity unknown The category used to report students or employees whose race and ... Apr 25, 2026 · race, the idea that the human species is divided into distinct groups on the basis of inherited physical and behavioral differences. Jun 10, 2025 · Race refers to dividing people into groups based on their physical appearance, while ethnicity refers to the identification of people from different geographic regions, including their religion, ... The concept of ethnicity contrasts with that of race in that it is concerned with group cultural identity or expression whereas race focuses on physical and genetic traits. Since the second half of the 20th century, race has been associated with discredited theories of scientific racism and has become increasingly seen as an essentially pseudoscientific system of classification.
