The meaning of COMPARATIVE is of, relating to, or constituting the degree of comparison in a language that denotes increase in the quality, quantity, or relation expressed by an adjective or adverb. Comparative adjectives compare one person or thing with another and enable us to say whether a person or thing has more or less of a particular quality: This car is more expensive than my last one. Dec 20, 2017 · Discover the power of comparative adjectives! Learn to compare and express differences or similarities effectively with our comprehensive guide. Learn the rules for comparative and superlative adjectives with clear examples. Avoid common mistakes and test your knowledge with our practice exercises. To make the comparative form of adjectives (like 'bigger' or 'more expensive') and the superlative form (like 'biggest' or 'most expensive'), first we need to know how many syllables are in the adjective. A comparative is the form of adjective or adverb used to compare two things. For example, "sweeter" is the comparative form of "sweet," and "quicker" is the comparative form of "quick." In English, there are three types of comparatives: the comparative of superiority, inferiority, and equality. Distinguishing short and long adjectives Short adjectives: composed of one syllable (tall, big, fast) or ...
