Five Little Pigs (Poirot) Agatha Christie 2010-10-14 Agatha Christie's ingenious murder mystery, reissued with a striking cover designed to appeal to the latest generation of Agatha Christie fans and book lovers.

Poirot's Early Cases Agatha Christie 2009-03-17 With his career still in its formative years, we learn many things about how Poirot came to exercise those famous 'grey cells' so well. Fourteen of the eighteen stories collected herein are narrated by Captain Arthur Hastings—including what would appear to be the earliest Poirot short story, 'The Affair at the Victory Ball,' which follows soon on the events of The Mysterious Affair at Styles. Two of the stories are narrated by Poirot himself, to Hastings. One, 'The Chocolate Box,' concerns Poirot's early days on the Belgian police force, and the case that was his greatest failure: 'My grey cells, they functioned not at all,' Poirot admits. But otherwise, in this most fascinating collection, they function brilliantly, Poirot's grey cells, challenging the reader to keep pace at every twist and turn.

Five Little Pigs Agatha Christie 2007 Poirot must delve deep into the past to find out how Carla Lemarchant's father died--was it suicide, or did her mother, who was convicted of the crime and died in prison, murder her husband.

Five Little Pigs Agatha

Christie 2011-02-01 Beautiful Caroline Crale was convicted of poisoning her husband, but just like the nursery rhyme, there were five other "little pigs" who could have done it: Philip Blake (the stockbroker), who went to market; Meredith Blake (the amateur herbalist), who stayed at home; Elsa

Greer (the three-time divorcée), who had her roast beef; Cecilia Williams (the devoted governess), who had none; and Angela Warren (the disfigured sister), who cried all the way home. Sixteen years later, Caroline's daughter is determined to prove her mother's innocence, and Poirot just can't get that nursery rhyme out of his mind.

"Boy Blue and His Friends" is a delightful collection of short stories crafted for young readers, featuring familiar characters from Mother Goose rhymes. The book opens with the story of Little Boy Blue, whose real name is Richard Snow, a seven-year-old boy living on a farm. His adventures include caring for his pet hen Snowball, receiving a pony named Fire-cracker, and experiencing a dream about his sheep and cows. The narrative continues with Mary and her lamb, Fleecy, who follows her to school, much to the amusement of her classmates. The book also introduces other beloved characters such as Little Bo-peep, who loses her sheep, and Mistress Mary, who receives a surprise garden from her friends while recovering from a sprained foot. Tommy Tucker, a boy who sings for his supper, finds a home with Grandma and Grandpa Hall, while Jack and Jill experience a tumble down the hill. The collection includes the story of Jack Horner's birthday pie, filled with surprises for his friends, and the tale of the Old Woman in the Shoe, who receives a Christmas gift from the children. The book concludes with the adventures of Miss

Constructed, Scripted and Performed Through Time

and Space Kathleen Glenister Robers 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter-Disciplinary Press in 2016. This volume crashes through many boundaries: between academic disciplines, between nations and cultures, and finally between the concepts 'time', 'space', and 'body'. With contributors from architecture, literary studies, education, cultural studies, and other fields, chapters take a special interest in the body as it is constructed, scripted, and performed through time and space. Arranged into sections for ease of use in the advanced university course, chapters explore significant questions for the 21st century: What is time? What is the relationship between space and existence? Who controls our bodies? Is there hope for the future given hegemonic controls on the body? From liberature to freak shows, from crime fiction to choreography and art installations to disability, the lived body is explored in all its human puzzlement.
