Practice can be a noun or a verb, but either way it's about how things are done on a regular basis. You can practice shotput every day because your town has a practice of supporting track-and-field events. Offering family medicine services, including annual physicals, sports physicals, flu shots, and diabetes, high blood pressure, and high cholesterol management. Typing practice lessons to improve your speed and accuracy. In the UK, 'practice' is a noun (like preparation), but 'practise' is a verb (like to prepare). The difference between practice and practise only affects those following British writing conventions. practice suggests an act or method followed with regularity and usually through choice.
