The meaning of COMPARATIVE is of, relating to, or constituting the degree of comparison in a language that denotes increase in the quality, quantity, or relation expressed by an adjective or adverb. Most adjectives have three forms or degrees: the positive, the comparative, and the superlative. In this discussion, we'll take a closer look at comparative adjectives. A comparative adjective compares two ... A comparative is a word or phrase that indicates a comparison between two things. It shows that one quality of something is more or less than the same quality in something else. We can say that something is more than another thing by using a comparative adjective with 'than'. France is bigger than Scotland. Luke is taller than Lucy. Your book is more interesting than my book. ... Jun 27, 2023 ·

In this guide, we discuss everything you need to know about comparative adjectives, from the spelling rules, to when to use more, to clearing up the comparative-versus-superlative-adjectives ... A comparative is the form of adjective or adverb used to compare two things. For example, "sweeter" is the comparative form of "sweet," and "quicker" is the comparative form of "quick."
