World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis 2014

The World's History Howard Spodek 2001 A true exploration of world history, this text presents world history through an analysis of eight chronological turning points seen through the prisms of eight different themes -- origins, cities, empires, religion, trade, migrations, revolutions, and technology. Focusing throughout on three major questions -- What do we know? How do we know it? What difference does it make? -- it helps readers make sense of the immensity of human historical experience -- the most significant activities, accomplishments and failures -- throughout the world, from earliest times to the present. Volumes I and II cover the following turning points--human origins and human cultures: 5 million B.C.E. - 10,000 B.C.E, The first cities 10,000 B.C.E. - 1000 C.E, Empire and Imperialism: 2300 B.C.E. - 1100 C.E, the rise of world religions: 600 B.C.E. - 1500 C.E, world trade: 1100 - 1776 C.E, migration 1500-1750, social change: 1688-1914 and exploding technologies: 1914-1900s. For individuals interested in a comprehensive, yet manageable presentation of world history.

The World's History Since 1100 Howard Spodek 2000 For introductory level courses in World History. A true exploration of world history, this text presents world history through an analysis of eight chronological turning points seen through the prisms of eight different themes origins, cities, empires, religion, trade, migrations, revolutions, and technology. Focusing throughout on three major questions What do we know? How do we know it? What difference does it make? it helps students make sense of the immensity of human historical experience the most significant activities, accomplishments and failures throughout the world, from earliest times to the present. Rich in primary sources both written and visual and in data and interpretation, it addresses how historians form, debate, and revise our historical understanding of the world, shows the value of other disciplines in understanding history, and helps students begin to assess their own place in the ongoing history of the world.

World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis

The Heritage of World Civilizations Albert M. Craig 2002-07 For undergraduate level World Civilization or World History courses. This comprehensive, accessible survey of world history has been extensively revised to provide an even more global and comparative perspective on the events and processes that have shaped our increasingly interdependent world. Written by leading scholars in their respective fields, Heritage of World Civilizations, 6/e, combines unusually strong and thorough coverage of the unique heritage of Asian, African, Islamic, Western, and American civilizations, while highlighting the role of the world's great religious and philosophical traditions.
