Out in Culture Corey K. Creekmur 1995 Out in Culture charts some of the ways in which lesbians, gays, and queers have understood and negotiated the pleasures and affirmations, as well as the disappointments, of mass culture. The essays collected here, combining critical and theoretical works from a cross-section of academics, journalists, and artists, demonstrate a rich variety of gay and lesbian approaches to film, television, popular music, and fashion. This wide-ranging anthology is the first to juxtapose pioneering work in gay and lesbian media criticism with recent essays in contemporary queer cultural studies. Uniquely accessible, Out in Culture presents such popular writers as B. Ruby Rich, Essex Hemphill, and Michael Musto as well as influential critics such as Richard Dyer, Chris Straayer, and Julia Lesage, on topics ranging from the queer careers of Agnes Moorehead and Pee Wee Herman to the cultural politics of gay drag, lesbian style, the visualization of AIDS, and the black snap! queen experience. Of particular interest are two "dossiers," the first linking essays on the queer content of Alfred Hitchcock's films, and the second on the production and reception of popular music within gay and lesbian communities. The volume concludes with an extensive bibliography--the most comprehensive currently available--of sources in gay, lesbian, and queer media criticism. Out in Culture explores the distinctive and original ways in which gays, lesbians, and queers have experienced, appropriated, and resisted the images and artifacts of popular culture. This eclectic anthology will be of interest to a broad audience of general readers and scholars interested in gay and lesbian issues; students of film, media, gender, and cultural studies; and those interested in the emerging field of queer theory. Singin' in the Rain Andrew Buchman 2024-09-10 The classic film musical Singin' in the Rain combines a streamlined 1920s storyline with vivid characters, memorable wisecracks and comedy, romance, riveting dancing, beautiful musical arrangements, gorgeous sets, props, and costumes, and virtuosic camera work. It is one of the few films esteemed by arthouse critics that also regularly turns up on lists of the best films for children. But this simply told, safely portrayed modern fairy tale is not simplistic. It is a social satire with a point of view on human nature and morality-what screenwriter Betty Comden called "a deep thread of real feeling." In this Oxford Guide to Film Musicals, author Andrew Buchman traces the film's genesis and analyzes the music and dance that make Singin' in the Rain Gene Kelly's best-known work, in the process examining the modern scholarship and new artwork the film has inspired.

Dance and Dancers 1985

Stanley Donen Joseph Andrew Casper 1983 A clear and insightful analysis of the life and work of American director and choreographer, Stanley Donen.

Motion Picture Production Encyclopedia 1952 Each edition covers previous five years.

America's Favorite Movies Rudy Behlmer 1982 Using primary source material such as story outlines as well as oral histories and interviews, Behlmer paints a realistic portrait of the studio moviemaking process between 1930 and 1952. Topics addressed include purchasing of story rights, the choice of director and actors, problems with censors and production and the creation of musical scores. Among the 15 movies discussed are "Frankenstein," "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "The Adventures of Robinhood," "Lost Horizon," "Stagecoach," "The Maltese Falcon," "The African Queen" and "Casablanca".
