Mar 11, 2024 · "Geting" is an incorrect spelling, while "Getting" is the correct spelling denoting the action or process of obtaining something. Correct spelling, explanation: stepping is a present participle/gerund form of the verb get. As you can see, to create this form, we need to do two things: first, add the popular suffix -ing to the word base, ... City staffers are required to get approval before their travel begins, not after, but those expenses were included among more than two dozen expense reports from the mayor's office, which were approved ... For example, if you say that you are getting somewhere, you mean that you are making progress, and if you say that something won't get you anywhere, you mean it will not help you to progress at all. Mar 3, 2026 · The correct spelling is getting. The word "getting" comes from the verb "get," and when forming the present participle or gerund, you double the final consonant after a short vowel. 1. To bring together; gather: getting the author's correspondence together. 2. To come together: We got together for lunch. 3. To arrive at an agreement: The feuding parties finally got together.
