The impact of Sick Lit on its target readership 2022-06-27

Pre-University Paper in the subject Literature - General, , language: English, abstract: This paper focuses on a specification of the wide topic "Sick Lit", which is the abbreviated form of "sick literature". It is defined as literature featuring sick children, written for children. With literary works - such as The Fault in Our Stars by John Green - gaining popularity, questions may arise. The relevance of this paper is to determine the impact of such books on their target readership. Due to the impossibility of covering every book under this subgenre, specific literature has been picked. Aside from the coverage of the subgenre's history, experts and readers are cited. Additionally, the psychological theory of adolescents' understanding and perceptions of death is provided. After months of research, it was therefore possible to state that even multiple experts' opinions differ. While some appeal to the authors' responsibility or are concerned about the literature being harmful for its readers, others view "Sick Lit" as a form of education. Hazel Grace Lancaster has thyroid cancer that has metastasized into her lungs. The tumors are no longer growing because of an experimental drug, but she will never fully recover. Hazel is watching television when her mother makes her get up and go to her cancer support group. Hazel dislikes the group, but her mother makes her attend because she thinks she needs to socialize more. She arrives just before the group begins. Isaac, her friend, talks about the surgery he will have in a few weeks. He had cancer in one eye and that eye was removed. However, the cancer is now in his other eye and he will have to have that eye removed, as well. As added support, Isaac brought his friend, Augustus Waters, to the support group. Augustus, a very good looking young man, is also a cancer survivor. He had osteosarcoma that required the removal of his leg. After support group, Hazel and Augustus wait outside for her mother. Isaac is with his girlfriend, Monica, making out on the far side of the church. Augustus asks Hazel to come to his house to watch V for Vendetta with him. He thinks she looks like Natalie Portman as she was in that movie. However, Hazel refuses when Augustus pops a cigarette into his mouth until he tells her that it is just a metaphor. She finds it so amusing, the irony of putting something that causes cancer into this mouth but not giving it the power to cause cancer, that she agrees to go to his home. Chapter 2 Augustus is a terrible driver because he cannot feel the gas pedal under his fake leg. Hazel makes him admit the only reason he has a driver's license is because the examiner felt sorry for him. She calls it a Cancer Perk. They share their cancer stories. At Augustus' house, Hazel meets his parents. Then they go downstairs to his bedroom. Augustus tells Hazel that he used to play basketball, but before he was diagnosed he realized it was pointless, the act of constantly throwing a ball into a basket. Then he asks her what she likes to do. She tells him about her favorite book, An Imperial Affliction. He agrees to read it if she will read his favorite book, the Price of Dawn. Augustus and Hazel go into the living room to watch the movie. Hazel thinks the movie is a guy-thing. Augustus drives her home and asks her to call him later. She promises to call when she finishes the book....

The Fault in Our Stars John Green, John 2015-05-30 The Fault in Our Stars is a novel by author John Green. The story follows the main character, Hazel Grace Lancaster, as she battles cancer. Not only is Hazel trying to live the normal life of a 16-year-old girl, but she is also struggling with what it will be like for her parents after she dies. While Hazel attends a church support group for cancer survivors, she meets a boy that is one year older than her, Augustus Waters. While Augustus had a type of cancer that causes him to lose his leg and wear a prosthetic, it also has a survival rate that is much higher than Hazel's death sentence. From the first day that Hazel meets Augustus, the two are practically inseparable. The basis of their relationship ends up being Hazel's favorite book, An Imperial Affliction. She requires Augustus to read it and in turn, he requires her to read the book that is the basis of his favorite video game. Hazel relates to the character in her favorite book, Anna, because Anna has a rare blood cancer. Augustus and Hazel bond over the book because both of them of a burning desire to find out how the story ends because the author stops the book before providing conclusion on what happens to each of the characters. Augustus joins Hazel's pursuit of the book's author, Peter Van Houten, to provide the answers that they need. Augustus even uses a wish foundation to fly him and Hazel to Amsterdam, where the author lives, to talk with him in person. While Hazel is the one that is doomed to die, Augustus ends up telling Hazel that at his recent scan, the doctors discovered that his entire body is filled with cancer. Hazel spends the last months of Augustus's life caring for him and loving him.

Bajo La Misma Estrella John Green, John 2015-05-30 Hazel Grace Lancaster es una adolescente de 16 años que vive en Indianápolis y padece de cáncer. Presionada por sus padres, acepta acudir a las reuniones de un grupo de apoyo, donde conoce a Augusto (Gus) Waters, quien había perdido una pierna también por un cáncer que estaba en remisión (Gus estaba en el grupo para dar ánimo a su amigo, Isaac). Hazel (quien sabe que morirá pronto) se enamora de Gus pero lo oculta para no hacerlo sufrir. Se hacen muy buenos amigos y deciden que cada uno lea la novela favorita del otro. La de Hazel es Un dolor imperial (An imperial affliction), precisamente sobre una niña con cáncer, cuyo final está inconcluso, para curiosidad de Hazel. Gus contacta al autor de la novela, Peter Van Houten, a través de su asistente, Lidewij, y consigue que una fundación que brinda a niños y jóvenes con cáncer la posibilidad de cumplir sus sueños, les pague un viaje junto con la madre de Hazel a Amsterdam, donde reside Van Houten, para que personalmente les aclare el final y otros aspectos sobre la novela. La trama se complica luego de una recaída de Hazel y del propio Gus. A su vez, el viaje a Europa no resulta como planearon: algunas cosas salieron mal y otras inesperadas muy bien. Pero contárselas implicaría arruinarles la lectura de una novela que vale la pena leer tanto si eres un joven como un adulto.

Een weeffout in onze sterren

John Green 2017-12-07 Hazel werd drie jaar geleden opgegeven, maar een nieuw medicijn rekt haar leven voor nog onbekende tijd. Genoeg om een studie op te pakken en vooral niet als zieke behandeld te worden. Augustus, Gus, heeft kanker overleefd - ten koste van een been. Vanaf het moment dat Hazel en Gus elkaar ontmoeten, lijkt er geen ontsnappen aan de zinderende wederzijdse aantrekkingskracht. Maar Hazel wil niet iemands tijdbom zijn. Hazel laat Gus kennismaken met haar lievelingsboek: An Imperial Affliction van Peter Van Houten, een roman over een ziek meisje, die midden in een zin eindigt. Samen besluiten ze op zoek te gaan naar Peter Van Houten om hem te vragen hoe het de personages vergaat nadat het boek is opgehouden. De tocht leidt hen naar Amsterdam, waar de schrijver als een kluizenaar leeft. Hij is in niets wat ze zich van hem hebben voorgesteld. En hun leven neemt een wending die ze zich niet hadden kunnen indenken. John Green heeft een meesterwerk geschreven: het wekt dan ook geen verbazing dat zijn roman bij verschijning de internationale bestsellerlijsten invloog en is bekroond met vele literatuurprijzen in binnen- en buitenland. In de VS werden van 'The Fault In Our Stars' nog voor verschijning meer dan 450.000 exemplaren verkocht. Het boek stond meer dan een jaar lang op nummer één in de NY Times bestsellerlijst. Inmiddels is de roman wereldwijd in meer dan dertig talen verkrijgbaar. In Nederland werd 'Een weeffout in onze sterren' bekroond met de jury- en de publieksprijs van de Dioraphthe Jongerenliteratuur Prijs, een unicum. In 2014 veroverde de Amerikaanse coming-of-age-verfilming van het boek wereldwijd de bioscopen. De film werd een regelrechte kaskraker en won talloze prijzen.

Mortality in the novel "The Fault in Our Stars" by John Green. An exploration of the theme with reference to the cancer patients Hazel Grace and Augustus Waters Rahul Gautam 2016-08-23 Essay from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Literature, , course: IB English, language: English, abstract: "The Fault In Our Stars" is a tragic love story that deals with the sufferings and deaths of cancer patients. John Green borrows the title of the story from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar", wherein Cassius says, "The fault dear Brutus is not in our stars but in ourselves that we are underlings." But contrary to what Cassius says, this story establishes the conundrum that we are helpless before our destiny. In Green's novel, Hazel and Augustus are lovers, not unlike "Antony and Cleopatra", and "Romeo and Juliet." But what separates them from the legendary lovers is the fact that they are born with cancer in their cells. Their story, although of great love and compassion, will not be written in the pages of history.

Using Literature to Learn and Teach Language

Carol Griffiths 2024-04-30 This accessibly-written textbook uses the intrinsic appeal of a story to engage students with language, and provides teachers with the background knowledge and the skills to use literature to construct lessons for their classes which integrate all four skills plus language awareness in an enjoyable way. Although a number of books and studies have examined the value of using literature to learn language, literature remains under-represented as a language learning resource. The author argues that the accumulated body of literature represents a bottomless pit of potential material, just waiting to be recognised and enjoyed. From a teacher's point of view, a lesson based on a literary work can provide an integrated approach to language development which few other approaches can match. A piece of literature can be used to develop all four skills, both receptive and productive (reading, writing, listening speaking) as well as production skills and language awareness. This book will be an essential resource for pre-service and in-service teachers, teacher trainers, students and scholars of Applied Linguistics, Language Education, TESOL and related subjects.
