

Orquideas A La Luz De La Luna

María Félix Niamh Thornton
2023 Mar a Félix (1914-2002)
left her mark on Mexican and European film as well as fashion, art and jewellery design. Cartier created one-of-a-kind pieces; Leonora Carrington and Diego Rivera painted portraits; Carlos Fuentes wrote a play; Agustín Lara, a bestselling song. But she was nobody's muse. Did Félix really bring baby crocodiles to the Cartier boutique to request lifelike copies in a necklace? The story may be apocryphal, but it perfectly encapsulates her powerful, independent and unconventional persona. This book first examines Félix's life and work, reviewing her films and acting style and considering what they say about gender norms and a woman's place on screen. It then turns to her role as curator and benefactor, exploring how art, literature and song sustained her image. It concludes by exploring the persistent interest in her life story and evaluating her significance for contemporary audiences.

Magnolias y senderos Andrés Miguel McDonald 2024-10-01
Para todos los seres humanos, desde hace milenios, la esperanza en una vida eterna y feliz después de la muerte ha sido el gran consuelo que les ha permitido soportar el sufrimiento producido por la existencia del mal en este mundo. Causa mucha seguridad creer en la existencia de un Dios paternal y bondadoso que nos ama como a sus hijos. Y si se tiene la suerte de pertenecer, entre todas las religiones del mundo, a la única verdadera, la Iglesia Católica, en compañía de Jesucristo, el Hijo de Dios, de la Virgen María y de multitudes incontables de seres angélicos, se puede esperar la hora de la muerte con alegría y serenidad.

Es lo que pensó Andrés Miguel durante toda su vida hasta que, a una avanzada edad, se convenció de que todo era un doloroso engaño de la humanidad. Su esperanza se derrumbó y ha tenido que buscar un nuevo sentido a su existencia. Y aunque ya no cree más en un Dios personal, su felicidad es mayor aún que antes, porque ha tratado de encontrar la verdad por sí mismo. En este libro está el relato de su experiencia vital. Tal vez les sirva a otros...

Latin American Theatre Review

The Reptant Eagle Roberto Cantú 2015-01-12 Carlos Fuentes (1928-2012) was the most prominent novelist in contemporary Mexico and, until his recent death, one of the leading voices in Latin America's Boom generation. He received the most prestigious awards and prizes in the world, including the Latin Civilization Award (presented by the Presidents of Brazil, Mexico, and France), the Miguel de Cervantes Prize, and the Prince of Asturias Award. During his fecund and accomplished life as a writer, literary theorist, and political analyst, Fuentes turned his attention to the major conflicts of the twentieth century - from the Second World War and the Cuban Revolution, to the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia, the war in Vietnam, and the post-revolutionary crisis of the one-party rule in Mexico - and attended to their political and international importance in his novels, short fiction, and essays. Known for his experimentation in narrative techniques, and for novels and essays written in a global range that illuminate the conflicts of our times, Fuentes's writings have been rightfully translated into most of the world's languages. His literary work continues to spur and provoke the interest of a global readership on diverse civilizations and eras, from Imperial Spain and post-revolutionary France, to Ancient and Modern Mexico, the United States, and Latin America. the Art of the Novel includes nineteen essays and one full introduction written exclusively for this volume by renowned Fuentes scholars from Asia, Europe, the United States, and Latin America. Collected into five parts, the essays integrate wide-ranging methods and innovative readings of The Death of Artemio Cruz (1962), Aura (1962), Terra Nostra (1975) and, among other novels, Distant Relations (1980); they analyze the visual arts in Fuentes's novels (Diego Rivera's murals and world film); chart and comment on the translations of Fuentes's narratives into Japanese and Romanian; and propose comprehensive readings of The Buried Mirror (1992) and Personas (2012), Fuentes's posthumous book of essays. Beyond their comprehensive and interdisciplinary scope, the book's essays trace Fuentes's conscious resolve to contribute to the art of the novel and to its uninterrupted tradition, from Cervantes and Rabelais to Thomas Mann and Alejo Carpentier, and from the Boom generation to Latin America's "Boomerang" group of younger writers. This book will be of importance to literary critics, teachers, students, and readers interested in Carlos Fuentes's world-embracing literary work. Modern Drama Scholarship and Criticism 1981-1990 Charles A. Carpenter 1997 A selective list of publications for the period, offering some 25,200 entries (no annotations) arranged by nationality and linguistic groups. Most entries concern literary currents in drama since the last third of the 19th century, playwrights who lived at least part of their lives in the 20th century, noted directors, and performance theory. For students and scholars of modern dramatic literature. While annual supplements of recent publications appear in the journal Modern Drama, new compilers took a publication date of 1991 as their starting point for listings, leaving some 2,000 items collected after 1992 appearing only in this volume. Lifting the Obsidian Mask Lanin A. Gyurko 2007 "This volume is the only study to encompass all of Fuentes' writings, including short stories, novels, theatre and essays, from his earliest short stories of the mythic and fantastic, Los días enmascarados, to his unique and enigmatic autobiographical dictionary En esto creo (2002), and his most significant narrative in the twenty-first century, La Silla del Águila (2003). Designed for the students of Latin American Literature as a comprehensive guidebook, for enthusiasts of Comparative Literature and Ethnic Studies, and specialists in Latin American Literature, Lifting the Obsidian Mask provides a highly readable, illuminating and invaluable exploration of Fuentes' complex and uncompromising, paradoxical, and fascinating art."--Product description, Amazon.com.

Georgina García-Gutiérrez
2001 Georgina García-Gutiérrez, especialista en la obra de Fuentes, ha seleccionado una serie de ensayos escritos por críticos e investigadores de brillante reputación, que analizan algunas de las principales obras literarias del autor de "La región más transparente". La crítica sobre la obra de Carlos Fuentes surge de lecturas de autores que han abierto caminos para la reflexión y que han influido notablemente en la vida cultural de México. En este volumen, la compiladora pone al alcance de todos, textos que ampliarán y profundizarán su percepción de por qué Fuentes es el escritor mexicano más importante de nuestros tiempos.
