City of Lyrics Nathan L. M. Tabor 2025-09-24
For centuries, Urdu-speaking poets and their audiences have gathered for mushā'irahs, literary competitions for spoken-word verse. Today the mushā'irah is a global phenomenon, as audiences in the millions convene in person and online for hours of poetic performance. Tracing these modern gatherings back to their origins, Nathan L. M. Tabor introduces readers to the popular emergence of the mushā'irah in eighteenth-century Delhi. Scores of poets composed two-line lyric poems, called ghazals, that they muttered, sang, shouted, and spat out in contentious salon spaces across India's largest metropolis. Delhi's mushā'irahs circulated lyrics, satires, and songs for both common and elite poets, who traded and assessed words as an urban commodity that defined hierarchy, taste, and notions of delight. Via poets' verse exchanges and their histories of Delhi's literary scene, City of Lyrics reconstructs the social networks the mushā'irahs produced. By understanding the roots of this uniquely Islamic literary practice, readers will gain insight into global popular culture today, which increasingly takes shape according to the tastes and values of the Muslim world yet is enjoyed by wide audiences of Muslims and non-Muslims alike.
