Al Sahifa E Alaviya Ali Ibn Abi Talib (as) - XKP 2015-11-04
Sahifa by Maula-e-kainaat Hazrat Ali ibn abi Talib (as).
Beautiful invocation - supplication recited by Imam Ali (as) - ISLAMICMOBILITY.COM -This book is one of the many Islamic publications distributed by Ahlulbayt Organization throughout the world in different languages with the aim of conveying the message of Islam to the people of the world. Ahlulbayt Organization (www.shia.es) is a registered Organization that operates and is sustained through collaborative efforts of volunteers in many countries around the world, and it welcomes your involvement and support. Its objectives are numerous, yet its main goal is to spread the truth about the Islamic faith in general and the Shia School of Thought in particular due to the latter being misrepresented, misunderstood and its tenets often assaulted by many ignorant folks, Muslims and non-Muslims. Organization's purpose is to facilitate the dissemination of knowledge through a global medium, the Internet, to locations where such resources are not commonly or easily accessible or are resented, resisted and fought! In addition, For a complete list of our published books please refer to our website (www.shia.es) or send us an email to info@shia.es Religious and Non-Religious Perspectives on Happiness and Wellbeing Sharada Sugirtharajah 2022-04-25 This book explores the theme of happiness and well-being from religious, spiritual, philosophical, psychological, humanistic, and health perspectives. Taking a non-binary approach, it considers how happiness in particular has been understood and appropriated in religious and non-religious strands of thought. The chapters offer incisive insight from a variety of perspectives, including humanism, atheism and major religions such as Christianity, Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism, and Judaism. Together they demonstrate that although worldviews might vary substantially, there are concurrences across religious and non-religious perspectives on happiness that provide a common ground for further cross-cultural and interreligious exploration. What the book makes clear is that happiness is not a static or monolithic category. It is an ongoing process of being and becoming, striving and seeking, living ethically and meaningfully, as well as arriving at a tranquil state of being. This multifaceted volume makes a fresh contribution to the contemporary study of happiness and is valuable reading for scholars and students from religious studies and theology, including those interested in interreligious dialogue and the psychology of religion, as well as positive psychology.

The Sacred Foundations of Justice in Islam Ali M.

Lakhani 2006-08-23 This is the definitive introduction to the writings of "Ali, who was the son-in-law to the Prophet Muhammad, the fourth caliph to Sunni Muslims, and the central figure in Shi'a Islam. Two essays in this anthology won awards at the International Congress on Iman "Ali, Tehran, 2001. Seyyed Hossein Nasr, pronounced them, among the best writings on this extraordinary figure in Western languages and are obligatory reading for anyone interested in "Ali.

Mysticism in Iran Ata Anzali

2017-09-28 An original study of the transformation of Safavid Persia from a majority Sunni country to a Twelver Shi'i realm "Mysticism" in Iran is an in-depth analysis of significant transformations in the religious landscape of Safavid Iran that led to the marginalization of Sufism and the eventual emergence of 'irfan as an alternative Shi'i model of spirituality. Ata Anzali draws on a treasure-trove of manuscripts from Iranian archives to offer an original study of the transformation of Safavid Persia from a majority Sunni country to a Twelver Shi'i realm. The work straddles social and intellectual history, beginning with an examination of late Safavid social and religious contexts in which Twelver religious scholars launched a successful campaign against Sufism with the tacit approval of the court. This led to the social, political, and economic marginalization of Sufism, which was stigmatized as an illegitimate mode of piety rooted in a Sunni past. Anzali directs the reader's attention to creative and successful attempts by other members of the ulama to incorporate the Sufi tradition into the new Twelver milieu. He argues that the category of 'irfan, or "mysticism," was invented at the end of the Safavid period by mystically minded scholars such as Shah Muhammad Darabi and Qutb al-Din Nayrizi in reference to this domesticated form of Sufism. Key aspects of Sufi thought and practice were revisited in the new environment, which Anzali demonstrates by examining the evolving role of the spiritual master. This traditional Sufi function was reimagined by Shi'i intellectuals to incorporate the guidance of the infallible imams and their deputies, the ulama. Anzali goes on to address the institutionalization of 'irfan in Shi'i madrasas and the role played by prominent religious scholars of the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries in this regard. The book closes with a chapter devoted to fascinating changes in the thought and practice of 'irfan in the twentieth century during the transformative processes of modernity. Focusing on the little-studied figure of Kayvan Qazvini and his writings, Anzali explains how 'irfan was embraced as a rational, science-friendly, nonsectarian, and anticlerical concept by secular Iranian intellectuals.

Shī'ism Etan Kohlberg 1991

This text considers the religious differences within the world of Islam and examines the evolution of the Shi'a tradition and western scholarship on the subject. It also considers key terms and concepts in Shi'a tradition, and legal and doctrinal thought.

Sahifa E Sajjadiya Imam Sajjad Ali Zayn Al Abidin (As)

2021-09-02 A celebrated collection of supplication and whispered prayers attributed to Imam Zain Al Abedin, the great grandson of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) and son of Imam Husayn Ibn Ali (A.S). Al Sahifa Al Sajjadiyya is an example of the highest form of eloquence. According to Shia narrations, the book is said to have been composed after the Battle of Karbala (680 AD) and describes the relationship between man and God. Shia tradition considers this book with great respect, ranking it behind the Quran and Ali's Nahj al-Balagha. Sahifa-e-Sajjadiya comprises of heart touching supplications given to us as a gift from our beloved Imam Ali Ibn Al Hussain. To be honest, I would read Sahifa-e-Sajjadia rarely; only if it would be mentioned to read a particular supplication in some salat to be read on special holy days. This was mainly because of its inaccessibility as an easy read. Most books that I would find are in Arabic. English is a language most easily understood by many. Hence the thought of compiling these beautiful supplications in a commonly used, global language arose. It's amazing how when Allah decides to bless you, he will cause situations to come together in your favour. This is compilation in the form of a beautifully coloured and designed book is a humble step towards reaching out to people who can make these supplications a part of their routine read and put them to good use in their daily lives. We wish our readers a happy read! "Be thankful for the unknown blessings already on their way" This is Wilayat Mission's publication.

Sahifa Alawiya Amirul Mominen Ali Ibne Abi Talib 2013-12-06 This book is one of the many Islamic publications distributed by Ahlulbayt Organization throughout the world in different languages with the aim of conveying the message of Islam to the people of the world. You may read this book carefully and should you be interested to have further study on such publications you can contact us through www.shia.es Naturally, if we find you to be a keen and energetic reader we shall give you a deserving response in sending you some other publications of this Organization.

Histoire de la sagesse et philosophie Shi'ite Mathieu Terrier 2016-02-17 Au XVIIe siècle en Iran, un clerc shi'ite aux penchants soufis, Qu b al-D n A kevar , achève d'écrire l'histoire universelle de la sagesse depuis le premier homme Adam jusqu'à son propre temps. Rédigé dans les deux principales langues savantes de l'Islam, l'arabe et le persan, cet ouvrage qui porte le titre de Ma b b al-qul b, littéralement « l'Aimé des cœurs », est pour diverses raisons resté longtemps confidentiel. Son premier volet, dont Mathieu Terrier propose ici la traduction et le commentaire, occupe une place importante dans ce que l'on peut appeler « l'histoire de l'histoire de la sagesse en Islam », étant à la fois la dernière oeuvre du genre rédigée à l'époque classique et la première composée d'un point de vue shi'ite imamite. Cette autre histoire de la philosophie ancienne manifeste une fidélité inattendue à son sujet, retrouvant la vocation de la philosophie grecque antique à être à la fois un discours théorique et un mode de vie conduisant l'homme à « se rendre semblable au divin autant qu'il est possible », selon la parole de Socrate. Elle est aussi un acte de résistance spirituelle contre les forces de l'« orthodoxie » autoproclamée.

Ce livre témoigne de la vivacité de la philosophie en Islam iranien à l'aube de la modernité.
