Wild Turkeys John J. Mettler 1998-01-09 From the Publisher: Wild turkey hunting is the up-and-coming sportsman's activity. And the key to understanding the wild turkey hunt is understanding the habits and habitat of this noble bird. An experienced veterinarian and hunter, John J. Mettler Jr. has written the most comprehensive guide for turkey hunters of all ages and skill levels. Wild Turkeys will take you step by step through every aspect of this exciting sport, including: Understanding wild turkey distribution, feeding patterns, and mating rituals; Choosing safe and effective clothing, firearms, and equipment; Dressing your turkey in the field; Mounting a prize bird; Photographing turkeys in their natural habitat.

You'll also find 30 recipes to help you fully enjoy this rare delicacy.

Get A Muzzle On Her! M. Carol Jamieson 2025-12-08 On September 14, 1962, twenty-year-old Carol Jamieson's world shattered. In an instant—a car crash on a darkened road—and her young husband was gone, leaving her alone with their one-year-old son, Sean, and a future no one that age is prepared to face. She refused the easy path offered by well-meaning friends including those who encouraged her to take government assistance; she would not be pitied, she would not be rescued, and she would not surrender her independence. Instead, she carved out an extraordinary life from the wreckage. Born in wartime Toronto and raised in a household plagued by alcohol, physical and mental abuse, Carol learned early to rely on her own fierce mind. Books, music, and ambition became her lifelines. When tragedy obliterated the first safe harbour she had ever known, she rebuilt—brick by brick—through sheer force of will. She rose first in media and public relations, shaping stories and successes for CTV, the Miss Canada Pageant, and later the CBC. She organized Stompin' Tom Connors' televised wedding and arranged his remarkable singing audience with Queen Elizabeth II. But it was in politics—Canada's rough-and-tumble, back-room, late-night version of it—where Carol's voice became impossible to ignore. She campaigned, strategized, fundraised, and problem-solved for candidates across the Progressive Conservative landscape, from municipal hopefuls to premiers and prime ministers. Some sought her counsel eagerly; others were less enthusiastic—yet they got it anyway. And more often than not, they listened. Beyond politics, she reinvented herself yet again, becoming co-founder of the Smith & Jamieson Tea Company, transforming thousands of kitchens across Canada and the United States and earning the title “Canada's Tea Lady.” After leaving the tea trade, she plunged into real estate development, delivering hundreds of new homes and twenty retirement residences across Ontario and Quebec—all while carving out time for her growing family, including her second son, Alexander, and three cherished grandchildren. Today, Carol channels her relentless energy into solving one of Canada's greatest challenges: affordable housing. With new ideas and unflinching resolve, she continues to push institutions, governments, and entire industries toward bold change. Get a Muzzle on Her! is the story of a woman who never fit neatly into a boys' club—and never cared to. It is a testament to courage, determination, reinvention, and the unstoppable power of a voice that refuses to be quieted. As the late Toronto City Councillor and mayoral candidate Anne Johnston once quipped, "Carol didn't wait for the White Knight—she got her own horse." And she's still riding it.

Christmas at the Vinyl Cafe Stuart McLean
2017-10-31 Come share Christmas with your friends at the Vinyl Cafe Christmas has always been a special time at the Vinyl Cafe. For two decades, Stuart McLean travelled across the country every December with The Vinyl Cafe Christmas tour, bringing the gift of laughter and light during the darkest days of the year. The hilarious world of Dave and Morley was even more real—more vibrant—during the holidays. For many, the Vinyl Cafe Christmas stories became beloved family traditions. Now, for the first time, they have been brought together in this special collection—including the classic "Dave Cooks the Turkey," as well as five new, never before published Christmas stories. From mishaps with the Turlingtons and the tale of a young Dave's first holiday disaster to the surprising "Christmas Ferret" and the touching sign off in "The Christmas Card," these wonderful new stories will delight for years to come. Brimming with charm and humour (often at Dave's expense), these twelve stories entertain on every page, reminding us what the holidays are all about.

Secrets from the Vinyl Cafe Stuart McLean

2006 Every family has its secrets. Morley, for example, is reluctant to talk about her beauty parlour betrayal and that other man in her life: Mathieu. Stephanie hasn't been entirely open about what she was doing in the woods last summer. Sam is keeping mum about his dark powers of prophecy and why he is going by the alias "Samantha." And Dave tries to avoid mentioning his attempted break-and-enter at the Turlingtons'. Who can blame them? When you commit acts of arson during Christmas dinner, attempt to start a life of crime by shoplifting a lipstick or sink your false teeth into the forbidden pleasure of corn on the cob, it's hard to come clean. These are the stories that no one knows, the stories Dave and Morley wouldn't tell you themselves: lies, white and otherwise, aliases, double lives and all manner of petty crimes and everyday transgressions. These are the secrets from the Vinyl Cafe.
