The Best of the Notary News
Victoria Ring 2004 On October 12, 2003 the first issue of The Notary News was published by Victoria Ring of 50 State Notary. Since that time The Notary News has been distributed free of charge on a weekly basis to a growing number of notary subscribers and fans. Why is The Notary News so popular? Because it is not a typical ezine. Instead of being dominated with advertising (like so many other free ezines) The Notary News provides excellent articles, tips and techniques submitted by other notary signing agents and other "insider" information to help the notary signing agent grow and prosper their business. The Best of The Notary News is fun to read and beautifully illustrated. Every article as well as the multitude of questions and answers specifically relating to notary signing agents has been meticulously organized to make finding information fast and easy. This book is a perfect compliment to How to Start, Operate and Market a Freelance Notary Signing Agent Business.

Real Estate 101 - Your 1st Year Florida Edition Cheryl Lovelace 2026-03-23 When I became a Realtor, I knew absolutely nothing - just like many others starting out. To survive, I filled a massive notebook with tips, reminders, and hard-earned lessons. At one point, I joked that I should turn it into a book. So I did. This guide doesn't dive very deep into every subject; instead, it's more like a roadmap. I can point you toward the destination, but what you do when you arrive will depend on the situation. Every client, transaction, and market is different; that's the reality of real estate. What this book does give you is direction. It's enough to help you find your footing, build confidence, and know you're not wandering through the business alone. My hope is simple: that new agents can open these pages, feel a little steadier, and say, "I can do this." Because you can. And we're all rooting for you.
