If you want to alleviate and clarify property ownership in Florida, you will have to enter into the Partition Action Lawsuit process. This is governed by a specific set of Florida statutes that are designed to help ... Sep 17, 2025 · In Florida, a legal process exists to help resolve these disputes, allowing a court to either divide or sell the property. This process is called a partition action. Co-owners can't agree on your Florida property? Get insights on these cases from Larry Tolchinsky, a partition lawsuit attorney with 30+ years handling forced sales of jointly owned real estate in Broward ... Oct 24, 2019 · The Partition action is a civil lawsuit filed against the other co-owners of the Property. Florida law entitles property owners to bring an action for Partition and force a sale. Oct 16, 2025 · If you and someone else both own a property — and one of you wants to sell, but the other doesn't — the court can step in and make the decision for you. Under Florida law, any legal co-owner of ... Apr 22, 2025 · Under Florida law, anyone who owns a share in a property has the right to file a partition lawsuit. You don't need permission from the other owners to start the process. When two or more joint owners of a real estate property cannot come into an agreement regarding the sale of the property, one of the owners may file a partition lawsuit to enforce the sale of the said property. Property disputes can be tough, especially when you share ownership. In Florida, Chapter 64 of the Florida Statutes provides a way to solve these issues through partition actions. These legal steps help divide ... Sep 4, 2025 · Whether you've received
