Public Relations Writing Doug Newsom 1998 This text covers all aspects of public relations writing with the practical approach one would expect to find in a trade book, but with the principles and theories of public relations interwoven so that students write with understanding and purpose. Part One sets the scene for the kind of writing public relations people do and the context in which they do it; Part Two concentrates on the work of writing; Part Three focuses on writing for small audiences; Part Four is directed at writing for the mass media; Part Five is directed toward special audiences.

Nationalism and the Cinema in France Hugo Frey 2014-07-01 It is often taken for granted that French cinema is intimately connected to the nation's sense of identity and self-confidence. But what do we really know about that relationship? What are the nuances, insider codes, and hidden history of the alignment between cinema and nationalism? Hugo Frey suggests that the concepts of the 'political myth' and 'the film event' are the essential theoretical reference points for unlocking film history. Nationalism and the Cinema in France offers new arguments regarding those connections in the French case, examining national elitism, neo-colonialism, and other exclusionary discourses, as well as discussing for the first time the subculture of cinema around the extreme right Front National. Key works from directors such as Michel Audiard, Jean-Luc Godard, Jean-Pierre Melville, Marcel Pagnol, Jean Renoir, Jacques Tati, François Truffaut, and others provide a rich body of evidence.
