It's safe to say that Philip Johnson was one of the most famous and influential American architects of the 20th century. It's safe to say that Philip Johnson was one of the most famous and influential American architects of the 20th century. Casey Johnson creates functional, form-driven wood objects designed, built, and hand-carved in his North Carolina studio. With reclaimed materials and an open, airy design, Casa Iporanga by architect Daniel Fromer melds with its verdant surroundings. George DiBona and Timothy Jellow patent metal letters for tracing an inscription and the Spacerite Company is born, dramatically reducing the time it takes to lay out an inscription on memorials.
