The Novels of Josefina Aldecoa

Nuala Kenny 2012 The first comprehensive analysis of the novels of prominent contemporary Spanish writer and educator Josefina Aldecoa. Josefina Aldecoa, in her treatment of themes such as a woman's place in society under and after dictatorship, mother-daughter relationships, war, and memory, confirmed her unique role as a contemporary novelist concerned with women's identity in Spain and as a writer of the mid-century generation ('los niños de la guerra'). The first volume of her trilogy, Historia de una maestra, was one of the earliest narratives of historical memory to be reproduced in Spain. In this sense, Aldecoa's work anticipated new developments in gender studies, such as the intersection of feminist concerns and cultural memory. This book offers a comprehensive examination of Aldecoa's trajectory as a novelist, from La enredadera to Hermanas, centring on her primary preoccupations of gender and memory, arguing that Aldecoa's fiction offers a new, more complex understanding of women's identity than previously understood. The work combines the two dominating theoretical components of feminism and cultural memory with close textual analysis of Aldecoa's narratives. Her novels highlight the importance of the details of women's daily experiences and struggles throughout the twentieth century, a period of significant socio-political upheaval and change in Spain's history. NUALA KENNY teaches Spanish at the National University of Maynooth, Ireland.

Throughout Spain's tumultuous twentieth century, women writers produced a dazzling variety of novels, popular theater, and poetry. Their work both reflected and helped to transform women's gender, family, and public roles, carving out new space in the literary canon. This multilingual collection of essays by both scholars and creative artists explores the diversity of Spanish women's writing, both celebrated and forgotten. Una maestra republicana: El viejo futuro de Julia Vigre

Sonsoles San Román
2015-09-21 Julia Vigre es una involuntaria protagonista de la historia que ha vivido los cambios sociales más importantes del siglo xx en España, desde la Segunda República hasta su muerte en 2008. Este libro es más que una biografía, en él se narra con rigor y detalle cómo lo viejo, el pasado de Julia, los ideales por los que luchó, volvieron para hacerse futuro. Como muchas maestras de la República que quedaron en España, fue depurada de la Escuela pública en 1939. Sin embargo, desempeñó una labor muy importante de alfabetización. Julia nunca dejó de ejercer como maestra; maestra de adultas en las cárceles en los dos períodos en los que fue encarcelada de 1939 a 1943 y de 1945 a 1947; maestra en la escuela pública durante la Guerra y desde 1961 hasta su jubilación. Nacida en 1916, pertenece a la primera generación de mujeres que gozó de los derechos sociales políticos y civiles que concedió la II República; fue también la primera que perdió todo lo que vivió en su juventud. Su vida es una lucha encarnizada, con años de cárcel y de silencio. Asumió como natural la coeducación, el laicismo, la participación de la mujer en el campo profesional, o la igualdad de género, algo que hoy consideramos normal, pero a lo que maestras como Julia dedicaron su vida y por lo que fueron castigadas.

de maestra. Es el comienzo de un sueño que la llevará a trabajar en varias escuelas rurales en España y en Guinea Ecuatorial. Este libro es la narración de su vida, hecha desde la memoria, durante los años veinte y hasta el comienzo de la Guerra Civil. Con el trasfondo de la República, la Revolución de Octubre y la guerra, evoca aquellos tiempos de pobreza, ignorancia y opresión, y muestra el importante papel de la enseñanza y de aquellos que lucharon por educar un país. Contado desde la verdad del recuerdo, con sentimientos que apenas nos atrevemos a reconocer y una progresiva toma de conciencia, el relato de esta mujer que en una época difícil supo encontrar su destino nos abre a todos un camino a la esperanza y al idealismo. Prólogo de Lara Moreno La crítica ha dicho: «He asistido al insólito hecho de encontrarme aquí con todos los temas, todos los fuegos que hoy se levantan, porque están encendidos desde hace siglos. Historias de Una Maestra

Tóxica Angela Harders 2024-02-10 Cada maestro comienza su carrera docente con el deseo de marcar una diferencia en el mundo marcando una diferencia en la vida de un niño (o quizás de miles de niños). Sin embargo, la mayoría de los docentes renuncian dentro de los primeros cinco años. ¿Por qué? Porque los sistemas tóxicos producen resultados tóxicos. Historias de Una Maestra Tóxica comparte la historia real de algunas de las impactantes experiencias que suceden detrás de las puertas cerradas de un salón de clases de una escuela pública. Esta mirada interna al tóxico sistema escolar revela los ciclos de abuso que impactan tanto a profesores como a estudiantes con resultados destructivos e incluso mortales.

novels by women writers that present women's experiences during and after the Spanish Civil War and Franco dictatorship, highlighting the struggles of female protagonists of different ages to confront an unresolved individual and collective past. It discusses the different narrative models and strategies used in these works and the ways in which they engage with their political and historical context, particularly in the light of campaigns for the so-called recovery of historical memory in Spain (the "memory boom") and in the broader context of memory and trauma studies. The novels that are examined in this book are Dulce Chacón's La voz dormida (2002), Rosa Regàs's Luna lunera (1999), Josefina Aldecoa's La fuerza del destino (1997), Carme Riera's La mitad del alma (2005), and Almudena Grandes's El corazón helado (2007). These works all highlight the multiple nature of memories and histories and demonstrate the complex ways in which the past impacts on the present. This book also considers the extent to which the memories represented in these five novels are inflected by gender and informed by the gender politics of twentieth-century and contemporary Spain.
