Career Handbook Canada. Human Resources Development Canada 1996 The purpose of this handbook is to provide useful, reliable, and accessible information about occupations to counsellors and their clients. The handbook is arranged according to the National Occupational Classification and contains information about occupations in 897 distinct groups. Each group is presented in the form of an occupational profile that provides a holistic picture of the occupation, with certain elements emphasized for counsellor interpretation. Each group is displayed on two facing pages with standardized sections including occupation codes, descriptor profile (prominent aptitudinal, interest, and worker function elements of the occupation), examples of job titles, employment requirements, typical workplaces or employers, occupational options such as mobility, similar occupations classified elsewhere, and comments.
