Quand l'innovation fait la ville durable Joëlle Forest 2015-01-28 La ville durable renvoie à une notion encore peu stabilisée, et dont les modalités de la «fabrique» restent inexplorées. Cet ouvrage se focalise sur l'analyse des dynamiques, des processus et des jeux d'acteurs qui contribuent à faire évoluer les modèles urbains existants. Il montre que l'innovation technologique, organisationnelle, institutionnelle et sociale constitue un prisme central de la compréhension de la fabrique de la ville durable. Combinant entrées analytiques, méthodologiques et empiriques, il privilégie une perspective interdisciplinaire et confronte différentes approches ; il accorde une place importante aux illustrations sectorielles (bâtiment, énergies renouvelables, réseaux urbains, etc.) et territoriales (villes et régions, en France et à l'étranger) des processus d'innovation urbaine durable, mais aussi aux obstacles (techniques, psychologiques, culturels ou encore économiques) qui en freinent le déploiement. Une référence pour les étudiants, les chercheurs et les praticiens en urbanisme et aménagement du territoire.

Fake News Is Bad News Ján Višňovský 2021-09-08 We live in the era of the digital revolution characterized by easy access to obtaining, processing and disseminating information on a global scale. The emergence of these global digital spaces has transformed the world of communication. This shift in our understanding of what we should be informed about, when and how, manifests itself not only within mature liberal democracies, which grant their citizens and the media constitutionally guaranteed freedom of speech and rights associated with obtaining information, but also within developing countries with different types of political establishments. Moreover, many media producers, especially journalists and persons claiming to be journalists, abuse their crucial mission and, instead, foster a set of serious communication phenomena that threaten basic human rights and freedoms, weaken them or decelerate their development. The publication is focused on the ways fake news, disinformation, misinformation and hateful statements are spread across society, predominantly within the online environment. Its main ambition is to offer an interdisciplinary body of scholarly knowledge on fake news, disinformation and propaganda in relation to today's journalism, social development, political situation and cultural affairs happening all around the world.

L'espace public urbain Guénola Capron 2007 Sans espace public, pas de ville. C'est l'une des antennes des recherches urbaines depuis la fin des années 1980. Quand un espace devient-il public ? En quoi l'espace public constitue-t-il l'une des conditions de la convivialité en ville ? Peut-on construire du « public » dans des espaces juridiquement privés ? Cet ouvrage cherche à explorer les modalités d'existence et les processus de construction de l'espace public, tout en dépassant les oppositions classiques entre État et économie, intérêts particuliers et intérêt général, qui fondent l'opposition du public et du privé. L'objet est ici analysé d'un point de vue processuel et non substantialiste qui risquerait de le figer. Cet ouvrage réunit des géographes, des architectes, des urbanistes, des sociologues, des économistes et des politistes, qui révèlent que sphère publique et scène publique ne cessent d'interférer dans leur dimension spatiale comme dans leur dimension temporelle Metropolitan Democracies Bernard Jouve 2019-06-04 Originally published in 2005. Citizen involvement - and the concept of partnership - in urban governance has long been a major issue in the transformation of local democracy. The move from delegated to participative forms of local government has, in principle, profound consequences for governance at the scale of cities. However, it is clear that partnership and participation are interpreted in many different ways, according to the traditions of government in different countries. This volume brings together the experiences of three countries in which very different approaches to participation are evident: Canada, France and the United Kingdom. By comparing and reflecting on these countries' approaches and the resulting changes in governance, it provides an in-depth analysis of the intentions and effects of involving citizens in policy making. It also highlights innovative new forms of partnership which are emerging within metropolitan areas at a local level.

Démocraties métropolitaines Bernard Jouve 2004-03-21T00:00:00-05:00 Qui gouverne les villes? Quel est le degré d'autonomie des villes? Comment la globalisation et la recomposition des rapports sociaux dans les métropoles affectent-elles l'exercice de la démocratie et redéfinissent-elles la citoyenneté? Les auteurs proposent, en termes analytiques et empiriques, de découvrir la portée réelle du renouveau de la démocratie participative et délibérative et les

Logiques paysannes et espaces agraires en Afrique 2010 Ce volume de la collection "Maîtrise de l'espace et développement" offre un espace de réflexion et de partage aux géographes africains sur la relation étroite qui existe entre les paysages construits par les cultures paysannes d'Afrique et les motivations profondes qui les produisent. Si la diversité des milieux physiques explique celle des espaces agraires sur le continent africain, l'attention de l'observateur est attirée par la variété des paysages dans chaque bande climatique, laissant l'ouverture à une interprétation non empirique de l'importance des choix culturels dans l'appropriation et la gestion de l'espace. Les sujets traités sont variés : les systèmes de production, le foncier, les aménagements agricoles et pastoraux, les écosystèmes lagunaires et la sécurité alimentaire. La richesse des textes sélectionnés permet de poser les bases d'un débat futur sur lequel se construira la nouvelle géographie africaine. En attendant ce débat, le présent ouvrage insiste sur les relations économiques largement dominées par les complémentarités entre pays côtiers et ceux de l'intérieur. L'impact de ces relations s'exprime par des logiques paysannes qui engendrent des formes variées d'organisation de l'espace agricole.

Aménagement du territoire et intégration sous-régionale ouest-africaine Toumany Mendy 2010

L'auteur dresse un état des lieux de la décentralisation et de l'aménagement du territoire au Sénégal. Il reconnaît l'inefficience de la centralisation initiée depuis le milieu des années 80, mais ne partage pas la proposition de réforme du président Wade. Il aborde aussi la problématique de l'intégration africaine dont la réussite dépend, selon lui, du succès des intégrations sectorielles sous-régionales. L'aménagement du territoire, au-delà de ses aspects économiques, se présente comme un des principaux vecteurs du rapprochement des peuples africains qui conditionne l'avenir de l'Union africaine.
