

Dead Cities And Other Tales Mike Davis

In most medical communities, a person is considered dead once there is irreversible and total cessation of all brain function, regardless of a continuing functional circulatory system. On this day in 1969, the Grateful Dead headed back to Labor Temple in Minneapolis. The venue, famously modeled after the Fillmore in SF, looked like a home away from home for the Dead. The show opened ... Dead, deceased, extinct, lifeless refer to something that does not have or appear to have life. Dead is usually applied to something that had life but from which life is now gone: dead trees.
