Multicultural Families, Home Literacies, and Mainstream Schooling Guofang Li 2009-02-16 This book addresses the lack of knowledge about immigrant and minority students' learning outside school. It explores literacy learning in diverse home contexts and how these practices inform school education and policy. It's a valuable resource for educators, researchers, and policymakers in literacy and multicultural education.

Learning about Punctuation Nigel Hall 1996 Although there are numerous handbooks detailing the rules of the punctuation system, there have been very few studies about how punctuation is understood by learners. This timely book is the first ever to address the issues associated with how people, and especially children, make sense of punctuation.

The Friendship Factor Kenneth Rubin

2003-04-29 Based on twenty-five years of research on friendship, Dr. Kenneth H. Rubin reveals the importance of children's social development to their emotional and intellectual growth—and future success. In The Friendship Factor he uses vivid case studies to differentiate normal development from potential problems and real distress, exploring how to: Distinguish between a solitary child and a lonely child Encourage the development of "popularity-as-likability," not "dominance" Help an easily angered child be less aggressive Increase a child's social ability with specific skills and strategies

Humanizing Research Django Paris 2014 What does it mean to conduct research for justice with youth and communities who are marginalized by systems of inequality based on race, ethnicity, sexuality, citizenship status, gender, and other categories of difference? In this collection, editors Django Paris and Maisha Winn have selected essays written by top scholars in education on humanizing approaches to qualitative and ethnographic inquiry with youth and their communities. Vignettes, portraits, narratives, personal and collaborative explorations, photographs, and additional data excerpts bring the findings to life for a better understanding of how to use research for positive social change.
