A la rencontre de la danse contemporaine Gioffredi paule 2009-11-01 "Ce n'est pas de la danse". Ainsi s'exprime quelquefois l'étonnement, voire l'agacement de certains spectateurs de danse contemporaine. Cette inquiétude traverse finalement la danse contemporaine toute entière : la danse peut-elle et doit-elle se définir ? Doit-elle manifester et revendiquer une spécificité esthétique stable ? Comment identifier des critères fiables pour distinguer la danse de ce qui ne l'est pas ?

The Bedroom Michelle Perrot 2018-08-21 An erudite and highly enjoyable exploration of the most intriguing of personal spaces, from Greek and Roman antiquity through today The winner of France's prestigious Prix Femina Essai (2009), this imaginative and captivating book explores the many dimensions of the room in which we spend so much of our lives—the bedroom. Eminent cultural historian Michelle Perrot traces the evolution of the bedroom from the time of the ancient Greeks and Romans to today, examining its myriad forms and functions, from royal king's chamber to child's sleeping quarters to lovers' trysting place to monk's cell. The history of women, so eager for a room of their own, and that of prisons, where the principal cause of suffering is the lack of privacy, is interwoven with a reflection on secrecy, walls, the night and its mysteries. Drawing from a wide range of sources, including architectural and design treatises, private journals, novels, memoirs, and correspondences, Perrot's engaging book follows the many roads that lead to the bedroom—birth, sex, illness, death—in its endeavor to expose the most intimate, nocturnal side of human history.

Object Fantasies Philippe Cordez 2018-09-10 In the modern lexicon, 'object' refers to an entity that is materially constituted, spatially defined, and functionally determined. In contrast, the Latin word 'fantasia' has, since antiquity, referred to an apparition or the ability to imagine something that could be equally an object, an image, or a concept. This tension prompts further inquiry into the interrelations and differences between the experience of tangible objects (their perception and handling) and the creation of new objects (their conception and formation). What correlations exist between object fantasies, the self-consciousness of subjects, and the concrete and imagined conditions of human beings' social lives? By addressing this question, this interdisciplinary book opens new perspectives in the field of object studies.
