A comparative is the form of adjective or adverb used to compare two things. For example, "sweeter" is the comparative form of "sweet," and "quicker" is the comparative form of "quick." In English, there are three types of comparatives: the comparative of superiority, inferiority, and equality. Distinguishing short and long adjectives Short adjectives: composed of one syllable (tall, big, fast) or ... Jun 27, 2023 · In this guide, we discuss everything you need to know about comparative adjectives, from the spelling rules, to when to use more, to clearing up the comparative-versus-superlative-adjectives ...

Mar 18, 2026 · Learn about comparative and superlative adjectives and do the exercises to practise using them. Learn the rules for comparative and superlative adjectives with clear examples. Avoid common mistakes and test your knowledge with our practice exercises. Comparative adjectives compare one person or thing with another and enable us to say whether a person or thing has more or less of a particular quality: This car is more expensive than my last one. The meaning of COMPARATIVE is of, relating to, or constituting the degree of comparison in a language that denotes increase in the quality, quantity, or relation expressed by an adjective or adverb. To make the comparative form of adjectives (like 'bigger' or 'more expensive') and the superlative form (like 'biggest' or 'most expensive'), first we need to know how many syllables are in the adjective. When we compare things, we use comparative and superlative forms of adjectives. In other words, comparative adjectives are used in sentences in which two nouns are compared.
