Subject Guide to Books in Print 2001

BASIC ACCOUNTING SOFAT, RAJNI 2016-08

An understanding of the basic accounting is a must for all professionals whether they are associated with accounting or non-accounting jobs. Considering the fundamentals and the practical implication of accounting procedures and methods, the Third Edition of the book has been enlarged further by adding three more chapters on Fund Flow Statement, Cash Flow Statement Analysis and Accounts of Non-trading Concerns. In view of the need of the current business scenario, these topics are introduced to help students learn new dimensions of the subject and to apply it to workplace scenario. The book is especially designed for the undergraduate students of computer application (BCA) and business administration (BBA). It is also useful for the postgraduate students of business administration (MBA).

STRATEGIC FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT, SECOND EDITION SOFAT, RAJNI 2015-10-28

The Second Edition of the book encompasses two new chapters—Strategic Cost Management and Business Ethics—A Strategic Financial Management Instrument. The book, being an augmented version of the previous edition, equips the young managers with the fundamentals and basics of strategic management and financial management in a cogent manner. The text now provides a better orientation to the students on the topics like corporate restructuring, divestitures, acquisitions, and mergers in the global context with the help of examples and caselets. The book has been revised keeping in view the requirements of postgraduate students of management and the students pursuing professional courses such as CA, MFC and CS. In addition, professionals working in the corporate sector may also find the book beneficial to integrate the financial management functions into business strategy and financial operations. Distinctive features • Model question papers have been appended at the end of the book. • Better justification of topics by merging the contents wherever required. • Theory supported with caselets inspired from global as well as Indian context.

Financial Accounting, 11e Print and Interactive E-Text John Hoggett 2020-09-11
FINANCIAL ANALYSIS FOR MANAGEMENT DECISIONS SARNAGADHARAN, M. 2011-02
 Intended for undergraduate (B.Com., BBA) and postgraduate (M.Com., MBA) students of Commerce and Management the book presents an in-depth analysis of various tools and techniques that help interpret the financial statements. At the outset, the book deals with the basic concepts of all the three branches of accounting—financial accounting, cost accounting and management accounting—and explains the meaning of various financial statements such as profit and loss account, balance sheet, statement of retained earnings and statement of changes in financial position. Apart from discussing the tools used for the analysis of financial statements, this text includes discussions on accounting ratios, including ratios for measuring liquidity, solvency, activity and profitability. Besides, the techniques of identifying flow of funds from a transaction, and the preparation and uses of fund flow statement, comparison of fund flow statement with income statement and balance sheet as well as the limitations of fund flow analysis are also described. Finally, this book discusses preparation and uses of cash flow statement based on traditional approach and on Accounting Standard (AS-3).
