Gerard of Abbeville, Secular Master, on Knowledge, Wisdom and Contemplation (2 vols) Stephen M. Metzger 2017-04-24 Gerard of Abbeville (d. 1272) was the foremost secular theologian at the University of Paris during the third quarter of the thirteenth century. Significantly, Gerard's corpus includes the most comprehensive treatment of the nature and extent of human knowledge from the generation before Henry of Ghent. Stephen M. Metzger's study presents Gerard's complete theory of human knowledge, which is a hierarchy extending from the knowledge acquired in faith, through scientific thought and culminating in the full vision of God by the blessed in patria. It is the fullest exposition of the life, works and thought of Gerard yet written and is augmented by the presentation for the first time of editions of several disputed questions and other texts. Urban & Regional References. Supplement Canadian Council on Urban and Regional Research 1971

Managing Cultural Diversity in Asia Jawad Syed 2010-01-01 This Companion provides an authoritative overview of how cultural diversity is managed in Asia. Although the Asian context appears at first sight to be irreconcilably divergent in terms of diversity management approaches, the contributing authors seek to explore thematic and geographical demarcations of the notions of cultural diversity and equality at work. Managing Cultural Diversity in Asia not only examines cultural diversity management in a particular geography but also makes a distinct contribution to the wider theory of managing diversity and equality by revealing the significance of context, time and place in framing policies and practices of management. With empirical and conceptual contributions from eminent scholars from across the Asian continent as well as the Asian diaspora, this volume highlights practices of equality and diversity management in settings across Asia and reveals the key drivers and implications of such practices. This important and path-breaking Companion will be an invaluable resource for both undergraduate and research-based postgraduate students on international and comparative human resource management, employment relations and industrial relations courses.

The problematic reality of an alterity implicit in the concept of communication has been a consistent attestation in formal discourse. The rapport of thought to this alterity has been consistently described as a radical inadequation. By virtue of the communicational economy which produces discontinuity and relation, illumination and the possibility of consciousness, an opacity haunts the familiarity of comprehension. Consciousness' spontaneity is limited by the difference or discontinuity of the exterior thing, of the exterior subject or intersubjective other, and of the generality of existence in its excess over comprehension's closure. An element implicit in difference or discontinuity escapes the power of comprehension, and even the possibility of manifestation. Within the system of tendencies and predications which characterizes formal discourse, however, this escape of alterity is most often understood as an escape which proceeds from its own substantiality: the unknowable in-itself of things, of subjects, and of generality. Alterity escapes the power of comprehension, on the basis of its power to escape this power. That which escapes the effectivity of consciousness, escapes on the basis of its own effectivity. For this reason, the rapport of inadequation described by the escape may function in formal discourse as a correlation. The inadequation of comprehension and exteriority may function as the vicissitude of a larger adequation. The latent principles of this adequation are power and totalization.

Teaching Charisms in the Catholic Church Roisín Coll 2026-02-06 This book brings together a range of scholarly essays on the Catholic Church's commitment to education through an examination of both its traditional teaching congregations and some new educational movements in the Church. This book integrates both historical and contemporary approaches and addresses the current state of play in Catholic schools internationally, whereby laity are tasked with maintaining the charism of the Congregations and Orders as the presence of religious schools has become less. This book provides an introduction to the Orders and Congregations in Catholic Education before providing the historical and contemporary perspective of specific Congregations. It explores both the historical and intended charism before discussing the contemporary and future focused directions of charism in education.

Die Bibliothek - The Library - La

Bibliothèque Andreas Speer 2020-10-26 Eine Bibliothek ist nicht bloß eine Ansammlung von Büchern, die auf ihre Nutzer warten. Bibliotheken sind Räume des Denkens und Institutionen geordneten Wissens. Sie spiegeln die Fragen ihrer Zeit und bewahren sie für künftige Zeiten. Sie sind demnach privilegierte Orte der Teilhabe an jenem Wissen, zu dem wir mit unseren Büchern selbst etwas beitragen. Im Begriff der Bibliothek zeigt sich somit die Interdependenz von ideeller und materieller Kultur, die Verflechtung von Wissensgeschichte und institutionellen Kontextbedingungen. Zum Verständnis einer Bibliothek gehören auch die Klassifizierung, der Lektüreleitfaden, die Leseordnung, das Ausbilden von Systemen. Hierbei lassen sich Bibliothekstypen in disziplinärer Hinsicht sowohl getrennt als auch in möglicher Verbindung betrachten. Nicht zuletzt sind Bibliotheken von alters her Orte des Medientransfers: von der Schriftrolle zum Pergament zum Papier, vom Manuskript zum Buchdruck zum digitalen Speichermedium. Dieser Band behandelt Bibliotheken in einem langen Jahrtausend, das wir gewöhnlich Mittelalter nennen. Der historische Blick zeigt uns wie in einem Laboratorium zugleich zentrale ideelle und materielle Bedingungen unserer heutigen Bibliotheken.

Islam and the Challenge of Democracy

Khaled Abou El Fadl 2015-05-20 The events of September 11 and the subsequent war on terrorism have provoked widespread discussion about the possibility of democracy in the Islamic world. Such topics as the meaning of jihad, the role of clerics as authoritative interpreters, and the place of human rights and toleration in Islam have become subjects of urgent public debate around the world. With few exceptions, however, this debate has proceeded in isolation from the vibrant traditions of argument within Islamic theology, philosophy, and law. Islam and the Challenge of Democracy aims to correct this deficiency. The book engages the reader in a rich discourse on the challenges of democracy in contemporary Islam. The collection begins with a lead essay by Khaled Abou El Fadl, who argues that democracy, especially a constitutional democracy that protects basic individual rights, is the form of government best suited to promoting a set of social and political values central to Islam. Because Islam is about submission to God and about each individual's responsibility to serve as His agent on Earth, Abou El Fadl argues, there is no place for the subjugation to human authority demanded by authoritarian regimes. The lead essay is followed by eleven others from internationally respected specialists in democracy and religion. They address, challenge, and engage Abou El Fadl's work. The contributors include John Esposito, Muhammad Fadel, Noah Feldman, Nader Hashemi, Bernard Haykel, Muqtedar Khan, Saba Mahmood, David Novak, William Quandt, Kevin Reinhart, and Jeremy Waldron.
