Critiques of Contemporary Rhetoric Karlyn Kohrs Campbell 1997

This book covers criticism of the persuasion that surrounds us in daily life; speeches at political conventions, editorials in newspapers, essays in magazines of opinion, debates in Congress, state legislatures, and political campaigns, and all of the efforts by which protesters and reformers justify their views. The authors focus attention on responding intelligently to this rhetoric. They view rhetorical criticism not as a matter of being critical or of attacking rhetoric but rather, as the process of analysis, interpretation, and evaluation of persuasive uses of language.

The Reflective Roles of the Classroom Teacher D. John McIntyre 1996

Each chapter reflects on a specific role a classroom teacher, must assume organizer, communicator, motivator, professional, counselor, ethical, and politician. Included within each chapter are self-assessment exercises and activities that test your knowledge of the particular role and allow you to reflect on how to act in that role. Throughout every chapter, theoretically-based strategies are applied to realistic classroom scenes. In concluding chapter, you'll reflect on how the various roles of a teacher interrelate and how to juggle these roles in order to perform effectively.

Psychodiagnostic Assessment of Children Randy W. Kamphaus

2008-06-02 An unparalleled resource for accurately diagnosing an array of childhood problems Psychodiagnostic Assessment of Children:

Dimensional and Categorical Approaches provides comprehensive guidelines for assessing and diagnosing a broad spectrum of childhood disorders. In this groundbreaking new text, Randy Kamphaus (coauthor of the BASC and BASC-II) and Jonathan Campbell discuss both theoretical and practical aspects of the field. Their detailed coverage provides students and professionals with important research findings and practical tools for accurate assessment and informed diagnosis. This monumental new work begins by explaining dimensional (e.g., classification methods that emphasize quantitative assessment measures such as behavior rating scales) and categorical (e.g., classification methods that emphasize qualitative assessment measures such as clinical observation and history-taking) methods of assessment and diagnosis. It then highlights assessment interpretation issues related to psychological assessment and diagnosis. The remainder of the text covers constructs and core symptoms of interest, diagnostic standards, assessment methods, interpretations of findings, and case studies for all of the major childhood disorders. The disorders include: * Mental retardation * Learning disability * Autism spectrum disorders * Depression * Anxiety disorders * Traumatic brain injuries * Eating disorders * Attention deficit hyperactivity disorder * Conduct disorder * Oppositional defiant disorder * Substance abuse and dependence * Subsyndromal and hypersyndromal impairments
